

Student accommodation is available within ISTVS premises. It is mandatory for foreign students of non-Somali origin, while foreign students of Somali origin and Somali students may organise their own accommodation within Sheikh town, or be accommodated in ISTVS while places last. Cost: USD 200 per month to cover ISTVS accommodation and meals.

Admission criteria for both courses: admission is based on the following minimum qualifications:

- O level certificate holder (from all IGAD countries)
- Passed ISTVS Entrance Examination (in English, Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics)
- One semester ISTVS Foundation Course (English, Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Information Technology)
- Only successful applicants who pass the ISTVS Entrance Examination and Foundation Course Examination will qualify for admission
- Applicants holding A level qualifications will be required to sit the ISTVS Entrance Examination, but will be exempted from the Foundation Course and its examination

To apply to ISTVS, applicants should submit the following:

Copy of O or A level certificate, or if in final year of secondary school, a copy of school enrolment or exam ID or authenticated letter specifying school attended copy of ID card/ passport

Student current contact address (valid e-mail address and telephone number)

Documentation should be sent to,
not later than June 30th 2013.

IGAD Sheikh Technical Veterinary
School and Reference Centre,
Sheikh, Somaliland

Tel: +252 2730118 or +252 2 4400433

Email: stvs@stvs-edu.org or tn.nairobi@tnea.or.ke

Visit our website for more information: www.stvs-edu.org

About ISTVS

IGAD Sheikh Technical Veterinary School and Reference Centre (ISTVS) is a regional institution located in Sheikh, in the Sahil highlands (Somaliland). Its mission is to build drought sustainable resilient pastoral and agro-pastoral communities through training and research and skills development.

ISTVS' main characteristics are:

- Student-centred learning methodology with emphasis on hands-on practical skills
- Specialized in arid and semi-arid lands (ASALs) where the predominant animal production system is pastoral

Emphasis on economics, marketing and regulations on animal and animal products international trade

IGAD Sheikh Technical Veterinary School and Reference Centre (ISTVS)

Courses for Academic Year 2013-2014

ISTVS offers a new 4-year course, awarding University of Nairobi Bachelor in Science in Dry-land Economics and Agro-ecosystem Management (BSc DEAM)

Fees/scholarships

- Somali nationals - USD 1015 per semester (USD 2130/ year) – including tuition, study materials, field trips
- Foreign nationals from IGAD region – USD 1330 per semester (USD 2660/ year) – including tuition, study materials, field trips
- USD 50 - to register with University of Nairobi, with UoN identity card and registration letter

ISTVS also offers a 3-year courses, awarding Makerere University Higher Diplomas in Livestock Health Sciences (DLH), and in Livestock Product Development and Entrepreneurship (DLPDE).

ISTVS graduates may upgrade their Diplomas to fully-fledged Degrees, at other Universities within the IGAD region with whom ISTVS has agreements.

scholarships

- Somali nationals - USD 765 per semester (USD 1530/ year) – including tuition, study materials, field trips
- Foreign nationals from IGAD region – USD 955 per semester (USD 1910/ year) – including tuition, study materials, field trips

Seats are limited
Enroll Now for September 2013 Classes

