ANNEX B I: GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR SERVICE CONTRACTS FOR EXTERNAL ACTIONS FINANCED BY THE EUROPEAN UNION

ANNEX B II: TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Background

With the objective of strengthening the efficiency and effectiveness of the PSD procurement unit, the procurement assistant will work under the supervision of the PSD-Procurement Officer.

Under this context, IGAD and ADA; the IPPSHAR grant management Agent of the EU, have agreed to fund the deployment of a short-term procurement assistant to support the implementation of the IPPSHAR by the various units, to accelerate and increase effectiveness of the PSD Procurement unit.

The procurement unit is entrusted with handling of various assignments; supporting all implementing Units of IPPSHAR programme. These units are; CEWARN, ISSP, MSU RESGAS and PSD. These Units are located on several floors; 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th, and yet needs to be supported by the procurement unit.

Thus, the procurement assistant will need to constantly move documents for approval by the relevant programme directors as the case may be/required as provided for by the PIPAPOM; the user manual for IPPSHAR.

The following are the key requirements and tasks that the procurement assistant will be handling assignments from day to day and as assigned/instructed by the PSDPO;

1. Handle simple procurement requests; such as booking of conference venues, local transport requirements and any other minor assignment by the PSDPO.
2. Procurement Assistant, shall be required to handle and track and retrieve procurement file.
4. Check the completeness of the existing and new files.
5. Open new file for new procurement requirements.
6. Enabling the movement of files from office to office as and when needed.
7. Prepare and Update procurement requisition (RfP) register.
8. And execute any other task as and when assigned by the PSDPO.
9. This contract shall be executed at a total contract value of EUR 20,000 payable at every end of the month upon submission of demand notice, time sheet as justification for executed tasks and invoice.

Objectives

The overall objective of the procurement assistant will be to provide assistance to the procurement unit to constantly move documents for approval by the relevant programme directors as the case may be/required, handle filing of documents, among others as may be assigned by the PSD-Procurement Officer.
