

IGAD organization statement for the day (7) June (2022) AD Djibouti
For the Kingdom's participation in the meetings of the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD).

We listened with interest to the speech of the Kingdom's delegation delivered by His Excellency the Adviser to the Royal Court, Mr. Ahmed bin Abdulaziz Kattan, which focused on strengthening Saudi-African relations and ways to develop the continent in many developmental areas, as the Kingdom is a strategic partner in the field of development for the African continent.

The organization affirms its support and welcomes the holding of the first Saudi-African and the fifth Arab-African summits in Riyadh this year, and also we would like to announce that the member states of the organization (IGAD) (supports / welcomes) the Kingdom's candidacy to host the Expo (2030) in Riyadh. The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia have a real historical role in the Development field in the entire African continent since 1975 until today through the Saudi Fund for Development and the King Salman Center for Relief and Humanitarian Action.
